“ Dear Family & Friends - Frank was a historian at North UMC where my mother's Slyh family worshipped for many years, and some cousins still do. All our baptism records are at North. Frank was a delight to talk with about the history of old North M-E. Frank also helped prepare our Franklin Co. Gen. & Hist. Society newsletters for mailing. My friends at the society say they really enjoyed Frank and his sense of humor. I attended North High's annual reunion last year and Frank sat with me and my cousins David & Martie Cottrill. He was a walking history book of old North Columbus. Frank was a delightful person. I shall miss him and our occasional talks very much. May God rest his soul in peace.
