“ I miss you so much! You were the best brother a sister could have! You were always there for me and my kids..from the best Christmas presents ever to those boat and jet ski rides on Indian Lake. Thanks for being a great role-model to my kids. I remember when you used to hold me down when I was little and slowly let spit almost drop on my face before you sucked it up!! I remember trying not to scream because the spit might just not get sucked up fast enough! What great brother on sister torture memories... I love everything about you and what you stood for, the great friend you have been to so many people, a son, father, brother, husband ,uncle, and businessman. Your sister! Nancy Stone Rutter

“ Theresa, Kyle, Nancy, Mr. and Mrs Stone, As a highschool friend of Eric's for 4 years, and roommate in college it was with great sadness that I heard of Eric's remission. I had hoped we could get together to share our 50th birthday as we were born on the same day 1/24/1960. Eric has been in my thoughts since that first news of his battle. I know that his loss has created a huge void in all of your lives. Eric and I shared a lot of laughs over the years and his non assuming, friendly approach with people was always his greatest gift. My thoughts and prayers are with you today and always. With Love and Sadness in my heart, Bill Price

He was an intelligent, handsome and charismatic man with a fabulous sense of humor. Anyone that really knew him and got to spend time with Eric considered themselves lucky to know him and especially to be his friend. He will be deeply missed.

“ If tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane, We would walk all the way to Heaven, to bring you home again No farewell words were spoken, no time to say good-bye You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why Our hearts ache in sadness, and secret tears will flow What is meant to lose you, no one will ever know ~Anonymous Goodbye for now my friend, we shall see each other again some day. My thoughts and prayers to the entire Stone family. Eric saw only the best in every situation, he made life better for those around him. I will never forget the opportunities he gave me and my family. He will be missed by me and everyone who knew him. God Bless.
