“ Wanda was a friend of my families since we first met at Pataskala Nazarene Church in the 70's. I remember her signing on Sunday mornings and dinners at her home in Johnstown.

When I moved to Tampa in '91 we continued to stay in touch by birthday cards and phone calls. We used to talk about her morning part time job at McDonald's! She came to visit us in Winter Garden. Wanda would send me a subscription on my birthday to Reader's Digest because she knew I liked the jokes and word games. On Memorial Day Wanda would put flowers and a flag on my father's grave in Westerville. When my mother was ill Wanda offered to come to Florida to help out.

I hadn't received a Christmas card from her in two years and I thought maybe age was slowing her down. Then I thought about her the other day and saw online she had died.

Wanda was the kind of friend you only have one of in your life, and that's if you are lucky. I will remember and treasure our friendship always.

My condolences to Rick and his family and Heather her granddaughter.
