“ Dear Danny Lisa and Tommy. I apologize being many yrs after mom passing to be adding a condolence; however, I just found mom's obit looking it up upon the passing of Barbara Waiz on March 28. I know your loss is deep.

For a bit of time in the late 60s I babysat you 3 dear children and also Rob and Cathy Waiz a few times. I was a Jeff High student in those days and well remember the joy of each of you. Even did a weekend babysit with you. Hourly rate then was $.50 an hour and I think I was paid $20 for the whole weekend.

Mom was such a beautiful lady, involved in many things. I, too, remember dad. I think he was one of the 1st really tall people I knew, but I'm only 5'2".

Mom got me a job at the BMV the first summer out of high school, 1971, when typewriters and carbon paper was used. So many copies to try to erase mistakes, ugh!

I enjoyed the video, so wonderful to see each of you grown up. The pic of you 3 when children on the couch was about the time I babysat you. A little rowdy but fun to watch! Still found memories. I married in 1974, moving from Jeff. Home is always home and always a joy to come back to visit friends and family.

“ I'm very sorry to hear this. Aunt Wanda was always so nice to me and Lord knows I didn't deserve it. I know she had been ill for a long time but losing your Mom is tough. For Dan, Lisa and Tom, I pray you have the peace that passes all understanding.
