“ Dearest Warren,

Over the past 34 years, you were known to us as the war hero, the problem solver and as the partner in an outdoor work project. You knew how to do everything and you will always be in our hearts and minds!

You were the example of what every successful man should be: honest, steadfast, hard working and brave. Your friendship to our family meant so much and we will always value and treasure the great times that we shared.

All our love forever to you and Jane!

“ How sorry I am to learn of Warren's death, so soon after the death of his wife, Jane. Please accept my condolences and prayers as you mourn the loss of your father and step-mother in such a short time. My parents thought the world of them both. I am sure they are with God in heaven, enjoying each other's company for all eternity. I pray the Lord will comfort you and give you peace in this time of mourning.

“ Warren was a great man and exceedingly generous. When our dad, Kenny Seeds, was out of work during due to an extended strike, Warren stepped up and gave him a job at Liquibox that saw the family through. When my aunt Mary contracted polio, Warren and his family stepped in to buy her a color TV for which the entire Berger family was grateful. Our father would often speak fondly of Warren and what a good friend he was. May God be with you at this time of his passing. Our entire family is grateful for his friendship and kindness.
