“ As I watched the strongest man I know be broken down by the deadliest thing I know, I learned the value of life. Not just the live like no tomorrow but the true value. My father never spoke anything but the truth. His words offered wisdom and teachings. He always preached the value of family and friends, and how nothing can be more rewarding than to give your shirt off your back for someone in need. Because in his last days everyone gave it back. I know he loved everyone that he encountered and I hope everyone values his words because they have affected us all. R.I.P. Wayne Saunders truly the best father, husband, brother, son, uncle, cousin, and friend ever to leave us. All in all he was the Greatest man he could be and will be loved till no end. I love my dad and am positive it was returned. There is no more pain. Zach

“ We fought like hell as brothers, we argued every day. He will always be my brother, no one can take that away, I never ask for favors, that has never been my way, If I needed something chuck would save the day. I never had to ask him, somehow he just knew. When I was in trouble he knew just what to do. I love my older brother and I am telling this to you... Chuck was there for me in the hardest thing I ever dealt with in life and I hope he knows I tried to be there for him when he needed me. thank you Brian.

“ Our family is so sorry for the loss of Wayne. I've had the pleasure of knowing Wayne, Paula, and Zach for the last several years, and have watched Zach grow up from just a boy to an incredible young man. That speaks volumes of the kind of parents Paula and Wayne have been. Zach, I hope you know how proud your father is of the young man you have become, and the man you will be. A lot of that is because of the great person your father was. Wayne fought a valiant fight, and is now watching over his entire family. From our family to yours, our deepest sympathy. “ *If I could write a story It would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind and loving father Who had a heart of gold
If could write a million pages But still be unable to say, just how Much I love and miss him
Every single day I will remember all he taught me
I'm hurt but won't be sad 'coz he'll send me down the answers
And he'll always be MY DAD*

*Hi, my name is Chris Hallstrom. I don't know if you will see this. My aunt, Linda Saunders, used to be married to your father. You might remember me from when we were children. Just wanted to let you know that she passed last Wednesday morning and her funeral will be tomorrow, Tuesday, May 16, 2023. I don't know how to get in contact with you as I tried searching on social media.

“ *Dad He never looks for praises He's never one to boast
He just goes on quietly working For those he loves the most His dreams are seldom spoken His wants are very few
And most of the time his worries Will go unspoken too
He's there.... A firm foundation Through all our storms of life
A sturdy hand to hold to In times of stress and strife
A true friend we can turn to When times are good or bad
One of our greatest blessings, The man that we call Dad.*

“ *Paula, we are so sorry to hear of your loss. Wayne was a good friend that I should have kept in touch with. He was always so helpful and a good buddy when we worked at O'Briens. If there is anything I can do for you, let me know. I am sorry that we lost touch. I always thought you two were a great couple and had a great family. Again, sorry for your loss.
