“ Dear Pat, Sherry and Vicki and all the family. We were so saddened to learn of Wes' homegoing. Seemed so sudden. Our hearts go out to you all. Having known Wes and you, Pat, for many, many years--- we are so fortunate to have met once again last fall at Tree of Life performance. You were such a dear, sweet couple. Jim remembers his many times of singing with Wes in the men's quartet. We were unable to make the viewing, but you were in our thoughts. We will keep you close in prayer as you travel through these difficult days ahead without him. We know Wes is with our heavenly Father and our precious Lord. We cling to the hope that is ours in Christ Jesus that we will see him again. May our Lord comfort you in your grief. Much love and deep sympathy, Jim and Carol Maxwell
