

William Allman

May 14, 1926 - July 13, 2024

William Edgar Allman, age 98, entered Heaven peacefully on July 13, 2024. Bill was born in Portsmouth, OH to the late Forrest and Princess Allman in 1926. He was preceded in death by his beloved high school sweetheart, June Stemen, whom he married in 1947 at the United Brethren Church in Lima, OH. He leaves his loving son Barry (Kitty Ann Consolo), as well as nieces Terry and Judy, and nephew Matt. He is also survived by lifelong friend Sara Reed and her children Randy (Helen) Reed, Brenda (Wayne) Martin, and Roger (Lisa) Reed; and special friends, Bob (Jane) Birkhimer, Patti (Tom) Heuer, and John (Carla) Birkhimer. In addition to Columbus, OH and Lima, OH, Bill resided for many years in Florence, AL and Richmond, VA. After graduating from Lima Central High School, Bill attended Bowling Green State University, then served in the US Navy from July 1944- January 1947, after which he married June and later graduated from The Ohio State University. Upon graduation, Bill worked as a Production Planning Manager for the Reynolds Metals Company until 1986. He filled his life being together with June (for 62 years!), camping, traveling internationally with friends, Bill and Ruth Birkhimer, and serving in many churches as both a deacon and musician. He loved concerts, played the piano, organ, clarinet, and the carillon. There was a special place in his heart for Jazz and the Swing music of the 1940's. The number of songs he could play from memory on the piano was always astounding! He was a wonderful father and friend, and is greatly missed. Funeral Service 1 p.m. Thursday, July 25, at Worthington
