“ Bill had a singular way of focusing in on you as a person when conversing with him. He often had a unique observation to add, and despite any differences of opinion -- there was always a feeling that he gave other people's ideas thoughtful consideration. I enjoyed his sense of humor and will miss his him and his ready laugh. We shared a love of all things Irish! 🍀 He reminded me of my grandfather, his father. Thank you Bill for being a great brother to my Mom and her sisters. Your kids and grandkids are a fine testimony to your legacy. All our condolences to Kim, Kevin, and Kerry and their families. Love to you all, and to our Uncle Bill! 💚

“ I truly appreciate the fact that Bill always showed up! He was always up for a good laugh and a good joke!! I will miss his smile and his quick responses. He would be standing there with his head down looking like he was sleeping and all of a sudden say something quick witted. I can picture him at the end of my parents counter doing that now. Then my dad or Big Tom would laugh cuz Bill didn't skip a beat! I love you Bill and you will be missed! ❤️

“Condolences to Bills wonderful, supportive family. He will be missed by so many. Bill was so much more than a resident at the retirement village. He always looked out for his neighbors, quick to lend a helping hand. He would hold open doors, ensure his neighbors were safe from falls by moving their walkers a little closer. He knew more about Football than all of his nurses put together, and would talk Notre Dame football for hours. He shared stories of his love for labs, and talked me into buying one. He sure loved his family and missed his wife. Bill was witty, smart, not afraid to speak his mind and knew exactly what was going on in the world. He loved reading the dispatch, NY times, sports illustrated magazines, and local papers with a hot cup of coffee.

He was the sweetest man, and if he loved you.. you sure knew it! I speak on behalf of his nurses; We will miss and love you forever, Mr. Keane.

Cheers, to an eternal life with Jesus and your beautiful wife ❤️
