“ Bill was simply a great guy. I can remember when I was a first year law clerk at the Schottenstein firm. Bill would let me tag along and we would run titles at courthouse. Bill knew more about the nuts and bolts of real estate than anyone I ever met. But, more importantly, he always gave me his time and would explain things to me so I could understand them. I do recall he had a plant in his office that was HUGE. This thing just kept growing and growing. I will miss Bill and that big laugh that he had. God bless Bill and his family. Pat Smith

“ Bill was a dear friend and business partner. I will miss him greatly. Soon after meeting Bill in 1985 I learned there was a kind and passionate person under that thin lawyer veneer. With my office next to his, it was a comfort knowing Bill was watching out for me and was the mentor I needed. As business partners we never had an argument in 22 years. As Bill and I talked about the cancer over the last several months leading up to the end, I had trouble keeping it together, but he never seemed to waiver. We would always talk of the task to be completed and never dwelled on the past. I am not sure how many people got to know Bill as I did, so I count myself as one of the lucky one. Rest in peace Bill

“ Laurie..I think of laughter when I think of Bill..the teasing, the droll, sardonic wit! No one got away with pretense around him ... Much love & fierce hugs to you.
