“ Bill's desk & office were next to mine at RE/MAX North Realtors. I couldn't have had a more thoughtful, helpful, honest, humorous & intelligent office buddy. If you knew Bill's smile & laugh you would surely, as I am now, wishing Miriam & family my deepest sympathies. Rest in peace, my friend. Steve

“ This was very sad news for us. Bill worked at our RE/MAX Northeast Office for quite a few years. Our heartfelt sympathy's to Miriam and all of your family. Bill always was a bright light in the office as well as at the Christmas parties in our home, literally, with his flashing RE/MAX jackets. Miriam, continue to play that beautiful harp music, as Bill will always be listening. Again, our thoughts are with you!! Jim and Susan

“ I was so saddened to read of Bill's passing. I went thru this last year with my husband's passing. Keep your faith and know one day you will see him again. I so enjoyed Bill's funny ways when I was at Re/Max and remember him always talking about Mariam playing the harp. What a blessing! God Bless!

“ It was such a privilege to know Bill. He was always cheerful and positive. He was always willing to help. A real true friend. He will be missed, but his memories will always be sweet. Another person on my list of who I will be glad to see on the other side. It's not over, nor will it ever be. We just have a little gap going on here. God bless all of you and how great to have had him in your life. Much love, Janet and David
