“ Dolores, Tim, and Mark: The Femia family wanted to send along our condolences on the loss of Bill. While we all grieve his loss, we also celebrate his freedom from the grip of a disease that seems to have touched us all at one time or another. On a personal note, God could not have blessed me with a finer set of godparents. For many, being a godparent is a nice token of friendship at the birth of a child, but Dolores, for you and Bill, it meant for me, a youth filled with heartfelt birthday phone calls, Christmas cards and visits with your family that will never be forgotten. For that, I count myself truly blessed. Much love...Chris
