“ He had a strong presence in so many people's lives, myself included. My fondest memory of Mr. Davis was back in my high school on a stormy, summer day. I was trying to finish the last strip of my lawn before the storm rolled in. Bill walked across the street, tapped my shoulder and said, "the lawn would be OK, but you won't be if a bolt of lightning hits you. Turn the mower off and get inside." He valued family and friends. He was a wonderful caring man and has passed those qualities on to his beautiful family. I am so very sorry for this loss. Hold on to the memories ladies. Hugs to all, Judy Belluche Fox

“ Anne and family, I am sorry to hear of your loss. Having never met him but have heard stories from Anne regarding her father, it sounds like he was a great man. The Bowerman's thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ *"He was a man, take him all in all, I shall not look upon his like again." My prayers are with the family over the loss of an irreplaceable treasure.
