“ Dear Ralphie and family, It is always hard to hear sad news and be so far away. It is then that you realize how important a simple hug can be. Bill faught a long and courageous fight. Linda and I spoke last night ,after we heard the bad news, about the time you,Bill,and Jimmy,visited us, and the five of us really laughed(and drank) the entire night. You and your entire family are in our thoughts and hearts so please accept this distant hug from your loving cousins.

“ I wanted to send my condolences to all of you. I was a student in Bill's English classes at J.U. After high school, I attended the College of Steubenville where I earned my degree in English. Upon my graduation, I returned to J.U. and taught with Bill. I have many fond memories of him. He was a very kind, caring person. He certainly had an impact and touched so many lives. I was surprised to see that you reside in the Powell, Ohio area as my husband and I relocated to Lewis Center when I retired from Edison in 2009. It truly is a small world. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers at this very difficult time. May God bless!

“ I was so sorry to read of Mr. Whitehouse's passing. So sad. I can well remember sitting in his class in the 8th grade and being terrified of him. There was just something about the way he looked over his glasses at you or pointed his finger at you that made you believe playing around in his class would lead to big trouble. And all of those lists and rules he made us memorize and then tested us on. I really thought he was torturing the class. I can truly say I did not appreciate all of that until I got to graduate school and had to take a comparative grammar class. I knew how to diagram a sentence and I knew all of the basic grammar rules. I was grateful to have had his class, and because of that class I ended up with an A in grad school. I guess as a teacher you never know what an impact you will really have on a person and how you will affect the rest of a student's life. I always wanted to go back and tell him “Thank You”, but by the time I got around to it he already had left Jefferson Union (Edison) High School. I will remember him fondly. Again, so sorry for your loss; I am sure you will miss him terribly.

“ Dear Raffaella: I met you many years ago through Bill and I often wondered where he had retired to. I knew you had left Steub., but didn't know where to. I am sad for your loss. I still remember being in his classroom and he was so funny and such a talker--an unusual guy. I am so saddened at his passing. You and your family have my deepest sympathies. You don't know how many times I have thought of him over the years.
