

Yvonne G. Roeger

December 26, 1937 - August 16, 2024

In Loving Memory of Yvonne G. Roeger
1937-2024

Yvonne Roeger was a cherished wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. At age 86, she passed away peacefully on Friday, August 16, 2024 while gardening, a favorite pastime. Her love and devotion touched the lives of all who met her. Often Yvonne's welcoming spark would turn any stranger into a close friend.

A Life Well-Lived

A beloved daughter of Joseph and Anna Gerich, Yvonne was born on December 26, 1937 in Jeannette, Pennsylvania. She graduated in 1954 from Jeannette High School and attended Penn State University where she met her soon to be husband on a blind date.

Clarence (C.J.) Roeger and Yvonne were married March 2, 1957. During their 67 years of marriage, they had three children: Suzan, Lori, and David. She spent most of her life as a spectacular homemaker and later worked as an administrative assistant for the Upper Arlington School District.

In 1996 Yvonne retired and with her husband went on cruises all around the world. As “Maa,” she spent time enjoying, nurturing, and guiding her six grandchildren (Jaime, Josh, Colleen, Sara, Lorelei, and Quinn) and seven great-grandchildren (Kenny, Jack, Julian, Kate, Adria, Azure, and Delaney). Every visit was honored with a “pillow present,” and every special occasion was remembered with a card and gift. She loved gardening, feeding “her” deer in the backyard, taking and sharing pictures, and a good game of Euchre. She was also a member and volunteer of the St. Joan of Arc Parish in Powell, Ohio.

Yvonne was predeceased by her parents and her sister, Mary Ella Kopia. She is survived by husband, Clarence; daughters, Suzan (Mark) Cloud and Lori Atkinson; son, David (Katie) Roeger, and her sister, Joanne Farmer.

“ Yvonne Roeger is a very special person to me and my family. From the day I met she and CJ, Yvonne enveloped us into her life, her home, and her family. I, my husband, Jim, and our children Jake and Will could do no wrong in Yvonne’s eyes. In Yvonne, we had the benefit of the best neighbor we have ever had; of course, along with CJ. We also had so much more. Yvonne and her loving kindness acted not only as a neighbor, but a friend a confidant to me and my family. Yvonne had a great quick wit, and never missed a birthday card nor a bag of Halloween candy and a Valentine. Yvonne always had a flag, a flower or some kind of holiday decoration, no matter the holiday. Unfortunately, for us Buckeye fans she also had a bunch of Penn State stuff. Yvonne was always a great sport about the fact that she lived around a bunch of Buckeye fans. My husband hung a Browns flag and an Ohio State flag on Yvonne and CJ’s garage door and took a photo, enclosing it in their Christmas card. Of course, Yvonne thought that was one of the funniest things! Yvonne had great advice about flowers and gardening. Like my own mother, she knew the name of any plant and flower. When I would bring her a flower, she would say oh great thank you for the..... and I would have no idea what complicated plant name she said, but I would just nod my head and say you’re welcome! Yvonne was extremely passionate and proud of her entire family. She would talk so often about all of the kids and grandkids and great grandkids; and of course... the pictures/photo books! Most of all, as their neighbor across the street for 20 years, I had the privilege of witnessing her love, kindness and care for CJ. She was a great example of a matriarch and wife. Yvonne had a very strong faith, and always included Jesus in her Easter and Christmas themes. She and CJ would be seated at the front right side of St Joan of Arc every Sunday morning at 7:30, and sometimes we would have discussions of the readings or the mass. She was very knowledgeable about her faith. Love, prayers, and blessings to CJ and David and Suzy and Lori and all of the grandkids and great grandkids. Love and prayers for Yvonne in heaven. Sincerely, Lara Hefner

Laura, thank you so much for those kind words about my mom. Every single thing you said is true and I have seen so much goodness in her in the last few days. She has taught us all well how to be a caring and loving human.

My parents often spoke of you as some of the best neighbors they have ever had. once again, thank you for your thoughts and condolences.

Suzie.
