

Zachary Hummel

December 29, 1986 - November 18, 2016

Zachary Adam Christian Hummel (ZACH), age 29, of Dublin, OH, has slipped away. He was born on December 29, 1986, in Des Moines, IA, into the loving arms of Carol and William J. Hummel. Beyond expectation, God reached for Zachary on November 18, 2016, and carried him on a journey to bliss.

Left behind and heartbroken are Zach's Mom and Dad; brothers Nicholas Hummel, Todd Farrimond and Matthew Farrimond; sisters Nichole Farrimond, Melinda Hummel (Starikova) and Susan Hummel (Robinson); sisters-in-law Lisa Farrimond and Lucy Farrimond; brothers-in-law Andrei Starikov and Andrew Robinson; niece Marlee Hummel; and nephews Sean Bemis (Megan and their infant Addison), Garrett Farrimond, and Will and Noel Robinson. Also saddened and weeping are maternal grandmother Joy Segraves (Grandma); uncles Gary Segraves (Gwen) and Don Hummel; loved ones who fill his family tree; and many friends that cross the globe. Together, we have been shaken by an inconceivable loss.

Zachary was preceded in passing by paternal grandparents Pauline and William M. Hummel (Grandma and Grandpa), maternal grandfather Robert G. Segraves, Jr. (Pop-Pop), Carolyn Hummel (Auntie Care), Kathy Segraves Ball (Aunt Kathy) (David), and Boxer-buddy Dante. Blessed now by grace, Zachary is embraced in everlasting reunion and safely searching the heavenly realm.

While his carefree youth and formative years were shaped in Dublin with family and friends, the adventures Zach later experienced defined the young man he came to be. Always an independent-minded free spirit, Zachary traveled and explored extensively. Fishing was his passion and his pleasure. From youngest days into adulthood, he was captivated by the alluring waters of ponds and rivers; oceans from the Atlantic to the Pacific; and destinations he charted to Canada, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, South America, and Southeast Asia. Zach was drawn to the Caribbean, and his next port-of-call was the Virgin Islands. Open seas and serene breezes spoke Zachary's name. He dreamed of and planned to sail around the world. He was brave and bold, soaking up life and drenching himself in discovery and learning.

Comforting for us are our beautiful memories of Zachary and the loving thoughts of others whose lives he impacted and inspired. Following is a quote that he lived by and often shared:

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.

Vaya con Dios, mi amor! May you fish peaceful waters for eternity. We are promised to see you again.

A private family service was held at Rutherford Funeral Home in Powell, OH where sentiments and expressions of affection can be posted on their tribute website (www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com/obituaries). In lieu of floral memorials, please plan a fishing trip, or an adventure in Zachary's honor. A donation in his name, to your charity of choice, would, likewise, be a wonderful remembrance of him.

Tribute Wall

“ Zachary Hummel

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ My dear nephew I remember when I took u fishing in w-s in a little pond we had bobbers and caught tiny little brim and Nick was with us I'm not sure how old u both were but I know we had a fun great day and I hope you are having a great time in heaven catching all those fish RIP my dear kind thoughtful nephew you will b missed

Gwen Segraves - December 15, 2016 at 02:37 AM

“ Words cannot express how very sorry I am. Although I did not know Zachary, I have known his family for a long time. The beautiful words that describe Zachary make me feel like I did know him. As mentioned, Zachary's life was filled with wonderful adventures; taking him to amazing places where many of us dream of exploring. One of my favorite quotes is, "I'll look back on this and smile because it was LIFE and I decided to live it." I believe that Zachary is smiling right now because he did just that; He lived it. Blessings to you all and continued prayers during this time. Sending one up to Zachary, too. 💙

Kandice Morrison - December 13, 2016 at 04:48 PM

“ My Brother, you will be missed more than you know. Adventurous, independent, wise and determined, you squeezed more into your brief 29 years than many have in an entire lifetime. I was always amazed by your resourcefulness and ability to pick up and go on a whim to various destinations. A natural free spirit within heart and soul.

May your adventures never cease, your views forever magnificent and fishing be plentiful and vast. We love you, we miss you and we will remember you eternally. I'll see you at the gates "Zachy" and look forward to exploring with you when our souls collide in Heaven. Love you so very much!!

- Sis (Nichole)

Nichole Farrimond - December 02, 2016 at 02:28 PM